

FINANCIAL SELF REVIEW REPORT INSTRUCTION 2017-2018

This report enables the finance council to review the procedures used by the parish, parish school, and their affiliated organizations to determine whether or not they are operating in accordance with diocesan policies and recommendations.

This report is to be filled out by a member of the finance council. This person should not be an employee of the parish or school, nor should this be a person who is responsible for the financial operations of the parish or school. In the case of schools, where a finance council may not exist, the parish finance council should be brought in to perform the financial self review.

The pastor is responsible for the oversight of all financial transactions that take place under the auspices of the parish and school. This includes the parish, all organizations that use the parish name or the diocesan Federal Tax ID number, the parish school and all school organizations that use the school name or the diocesan Federal Tax ID number.

When questions are answered "No" please explain in the "Explanations/Recommendations" section at the end of the document. The finance council is responsible for following up on these issues to ensure appropriate procedures are in place.

Please refer questions about these reports to Teresa Conville in the Compliance & Parish Financial Services Office, tconville@dsj.org or (408) 983-0241.
