Reflection Session 7: Morality, Part 1

Read pp. 6-7 and pp. 14-15 in the workbook.
Read the Catholic Update: Catholic Morality...Has It Changed?

Please answer the following questions:

1. Christian morality is based on __________________ and ____________________

2. Where do Catholics look for moral guidance? _______________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

3. Give an example of an objective moral truth. ____________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

4. What is meant by the subjective dimension of morality? ________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

5. Why are the Beatitudes important for the Christian moral life? ______________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

6. How did this session affect your understanding of Christian morality? __________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

Please turn in your reflection at the next session. Thank you.