Reading and Reflection Session 10: Prayer and Spirituality Part 1
June 21, 2010

Read pages 5-7, 15-16, and 25-26 in the “Prayer and Spirituality” workbook.
Respond to the following questions. PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE.

1. What does it mean to say that prayer is gift?
   ____________________________________________________________________________

2. What does it mean to say that prayer is communion?
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________

3. An example of communal prayer is _____________________________________________ Praying with the community is important because ________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________

4. How do we pray “from our lives”?
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________

5. What have you learned this evening that will help you in your prayer?
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________

Please turn in your reflection at your next session if possible. Thank you.
PLease bring an example of a cultural prayer that you have experienced to the next session.

08/17/09