Institute for Leadership in Ministry LITURGY SUMMER COURSE

The Sunday Liturgy is the heart of our life together as Church. This course will help you to get a better understanding of how to prepare it, prepare for it, and learn from it. It will deepen your understanding of your faith and will help your parish assembly be more engaged in the life of Christ we celebrate at every Eucharist.

This course will help those involved in preparing for liturgy in a parish: liturgy coordinators and members of a liturgy committee; those responsible for preparing and training liturgical ministers, those responsible for coordinating the music for parish liturgies; catechists who want to understand the liturgy better.

The course is intended for ILM graduates or ministers with previous courses in scripture and basic liturgy.
