

Do you or someone you know want to help others and receive additional income?
Do you or someone you know have a difficult time finding affordable housing in Santa Clara county?

If your answer is "Yes" to either question, Catholic Charities House Sharing program may be able to help. The House Sharing program offers an easy, safe route to help people find renters and affordable housing opportunities. The program is operated by Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County, and is funded and supported by the County offices of Santa Clara.

To find out more about this program, please attend the House Sharing workshop sponsored by St. Lucy's Social Justice Ministry:
