Wednesday March 13
St. Teresa of Calcutta

Mother Teresa is perhaps the most recognized Christian saint of the 20th Century and an inspiration to people of all traditions. How did this nun become one of the most beloved servants of suffering human beings and an ambassador of Christ to the world?

Fr. Kevin Joyce completed his Ph.D. in Spirituality at the Catholic University of America. He served for many years as pastor of large multi-cultural parishes, director of a diocesan spirituality center, and presently serves at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in San Jose.
