

Name:	Brother Thomas Spring, SM
Celebrating:	70 years of profession First vows: Sept. 5, 1952
Religious order:	Society of Mary (Marianists)
Local affiliation:	Served in the Province development office in Cupertino; taught high school in San Jose; currently residing in Cupertino
Present ministry:	Serving since August 2021 at the Cupertino Marianist Community assisting in the care of infirm and elderly Marianists and writing thank-you notes for donors to the Marianist Mission
Information/Biography:	The Society of Mary (Marianists) announces the 70th jubilee of profession of Cupertino resident Brother Thomas Spring, a Hawaii native who has served the Diocese of San Jose in various ministries throughout his history of Marianist service. Brother Spring entered the postulate in Santa Cruz, California, and professed first vows on Sept., 5, 1952, in Marcy, New York. Almost two decades later, Brother Spring was assigned to ministry in California that eventually spanned 20 years of service, beginning in Cupertino. From 1971-1973, he served in the Marianist province development office and from 1973-1975, he taught at Archbishop Mitty High School in San Jose. Brother Spring returned to San Jose 10 years later to serve at Queen of Apostles Parish where he directed the music ministry from 1985-1992. In 2021, he relocated to the Cupertino Marianist Community where he currently resides and assists in caring for the Marianists in residence.

For more information, contact Jane Palisch at jpmarkcom@sbcglobal.net or call 314-821-6454.