

Small Group Facilitator Training

Become a group facilitator and help bring
“Jesus and the Eucharist” to your parish this Fall.

“Jesus and the Eucharist” is a seven-session small-group series that parishes can host to immerse participants in the good news of Jesus Christ and unveil God’s saving work in the Eucharist.

This training is geared for:

- First time facilitator or leader
- Anyone leading a small group now and want to learn about this program
- Volunteers helping organize small groups for your parish
